Los Angeles County For You Orientations

On the third Thursday of every month from 6-7:30, LAC4YOU hosts orientation programs for new asylees, discussing how to obtain important documents, family reunification, medical insurance and health resources, employment rights, and housing. The program is free to attend and seeks to properly introduce and orient families to Los Angeles.

United Nations Refugee Agency

Through the UN, one can apply for asylum, a form of protection that allows one to live and work in the US. They provide ample information about the application process and the rights that asylees have. The UN also has extensive lists detailing refugees' legal rights and how to enter the resettlement process. This website teaches refugees and asylees the extent of their rights.
